Ask Randy

Have questions about your recycling service?

Dear Randy: With the Holidays around the corner, I'm very interested in finding a way to eliminate waste and complete the recycling loop by giving to others. I just don't know where to begin.

A: Re-using an item is far better than recycling. Donating heavy coats, sweatshirts, beanies or blankets can make for a warm Holiday to a family in need. Also, if you have household electronics such as TVs, phones or computers you don't want to go to waste check out donation alternatives before you recycle using the links below.

Goodwill: <http://www.goodwill.org/page/guest/about>

Salvation Army: http://www.salvationarmyusa.org/usn/www_usn.nsf

RecycleWorks Reuse Center: http://www.recycleworks.org/reuse_center.html

If you have clothing that is shredded or not in "wearable" condition, you can always recycle them! Tie fabrics in a clear plastic bag and place in your recycling cart for collection. We'll do the rest.

Acceptable Items: Clean cotton, linen, polyester, rayon and wool fabrics (e.g. blankets, clothes, cloth diapers, rags, sheets)

NO rags or textiles soiled with chemicals, oil or paint.

NO Shoes, Carpets, Disposable diapers, Down-filled items, Leather, Nylon, Pillows, Rubber, Stuffed animals, Vinyl.
